

#9013

Economic Support Specialist I/II

Jefferson County Human Services offers a career opportunity in the Economic Support Division. Primary responsibilities include: assessment, call center agent, determining eligibility and providing case management services for federal, state and county economic support programs for the residents of Jefferson County.

Qualified candidates must have associate degree in accounting, human services or related field or completion of Wisconsin DHSS Income Maintenance Training; 1-2 years public experience as well as computer and interviewing skills or equivalent. Starting pay $17.19-$18.94/hr, commensurate with education and experience.

Application review begins November 2, 2015 and position is open until filled. Visit www.jeffersoncountywi.gov or Human Resources for complete requirements and application. Submit application, resume and cover letter online or send to: Jefferson County Human Resources, 311 S. Center Ave., Jefferson, WI 53549.

EOE